Regulations on the Board of Directors

CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Purpose

The purpose of the Regulations on the Board of Directors (the “Regulation”) is to prescribe matters necessary to operate the Board of Directors efficiently.

Article 2. Scope of Application

Matters relating to the Board of Directors shall be subject to the Regulation, unless otherwise provided in relevant laws and regulations or the Articles of Incorporation.

Article 3. Authority

- (1) The Board of Directors shall make decisions on the matters prescribed in relevant laws and regulations or the Articles of Incorporation, matters delegated to it by the general meeting of shareholders, and important matters concerning basic policies on management of the Company and execution of the business.
- (2) The Board of Directors shall supervise the legitimacy of directors’ performance of their duties.
- (3) If the Board of Directors is aware that a director has violated or is likely to violate any of relevant laws and regulations or the Articles of Incorporation in performing his/her duties, or has performed or is likely to perform any of his/her duties in a materially unfair manner, it may request the director to submit relevant materials and for explanation, and investigate.
- (4) In case of sub-article (3) above, the Board of Directors may request to suspend or alter the execution.
- (5) The Board of Directors may by its resolution delegate the determination of details for the execution of its resolution to the representative director.

Article 4. Provision of Information for Independent Directors

- (1) The independent directors may request the representative director to promptly provide the necessary information in performing their duties, and the representative director shall comply with that request unless there is a justifiable reason. However, a request for material confidential matters of the Company shall be made by the request of the majority of independent directors.
- (2) The independent directors, if necessary, may request the representative director to provide the assistance from executives and employees or professionals such as external auditors, legal counsels, and the like, and the expenses hereof shall be borne by the Company within reasonable range.

Article 5. Fiduciary Duty and Duty of Loyalty

- (1) Directors shall perform their duties for the interest of the Company and entire shareholders, and shall not do anything causing damage to the Company or the entire shareholders for the benefit of the large business groups that the Company belongs to under the Monopoly Regulation and Fair Trade Act or certain controlling shareholders.
- (2) No director shall, without the approval of the Board of Directors, engage in, on his/her own account or on the account of a third party, any transaction in the same type of business of the Company or with the Company.
- (3) No director shall divulge any secret of the Company, which has come to his/her knowledge in the course of performing his/her duty.

CHAPTER II COMPOSITION

Article 6. Composition

The Board of Directors shall be composed of all of the directors (including independent directors).

Article 7. Appointment of a Representative Director and a Chairperson

- (1) The Board of Directors shall appoint a representative director by its resolution pursuant to the article 41 of the Articles of Incorporation.
- (2) The Board of Directors shall appoint the chairperson of the Board of Directors among the directors by its resolution.
- (3) If the chairperson is absent or unable to execute his/her duties, the lead independent director prescribed in the article 8 shall perform on behalf of the chairperson.
- (4) In the case that the lead independent director may not perform as per the sub-article 3, the director elected by the directors present shall perform on behalf of the chairperson.

Article 8. Lead Independent Director

- (1) The Board of Directors may appoint an independent director representing directors (“Lead Independent Director”) among independent directors.
- (2) The term of the Lead Independent Director is the same term as the director of the Lead Independent Director.
- (3) The Lead Independent Director shall perform works set forth below:

1. Convening and presiding over the meeting of independent directors consisting of all independent directors;
 2. Assistance for the efficient performance of independent directors; and
 3. Review of the functions and results of activities of the Board of Directors and each committee.
- (4) The Company shall provide assistance necessary for the Lead Independent Director to perform the works set forth in sub-article (3).

Article 9. Committees within the Board of Directors

- (1) The Board of Directors may establish various committees as prescribed by the Articles of Incorporation within the Board for prompt, efficient decision-making.
- (2) The Board of Directors may delegate its authority to the committee except for the followings:
 1. Proposals relevant to the matters which require approval of a general meeting of shareholders;
 2. Election and dismissal of a representative director;
 3. Establishment and abolition of committees, and appointment and dismissal of the members of those committees; and
 4. Other matters prescribed in the Articles of Incorporation.
- (3) The following committee shall be established within the Board of Directors.
 1. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee: it shall consist of three or more directors, and independent directors shall hold the majority of the members.
 2. The Audit Committee: it shall consist of three directors, and two-thirds or more of the total number of members shall be independent directors.
 3. The Finance Committee: it shall consist of three or more directors, and one or more of independent directors shall be included.
 4. The ESG Committee: it shall consist of three or more independent directors, and all members shall be independent directors.
- (4) The committee shall notify each director of its resolutions. In such case, each director informed of them may request for a meeting of the Board of Directors.
- (5) The Board of Directors may resolve again on matters revolved by the committee. However, this does not apply to resolutions of the Audit Committee.

CHAPTER III BOARD MEETING

Article 10. Types
